Re: Civil Rights Complaint Against Calvin University
Regarding Sixty-Five (65) Discriminatory Scholarships

Dear Mr. Trainer and OCR Staff:

This is a federal civil rights complaint pursuant to the U.S. Department of Education's Office for Civil Rights ("OCR") discrimination complaint resolution procedures.<sup>1</sup> We write on behalf of the Equal Protection Project of the Legal Insurrection Foundation, a non-profit that, among other things, seeks to ensure equal protection and non-discrimination, and that opposes racial discrimination in any form.

We bring this civil rights complaint against Calvin University ("Calvin"), a private university, for discrimination in sixty-five (65) scholarships based on race, color, national origin, and/or sex in violation of Title VI and Title IX, respectively. We request expedited investigation and action on this case in light of the enormous number of discriminatory scholarships, by far the most we have ever seen at any one institution, and the ongoing award process.

The scholarships listed in Exhibit A (35) violate Title VI by conditioning eligibility on race, color, or national origin. For example, the “Dale and Ila Wiersma Scholarship” requires recipients to be a “North American ethnic minority student.” Others give preference based on these factors, such as the “Arnold and Janice Bok Family Scholarship”, which states that “first preference will be given to a Hispanic student from North, Central, or South America.”

Further, the scholarships in Exhibit B (3) violate both Title VI and Title IX by giving preference based on race, color, national origin, and sex. For instance, the “A.M.D.G. Scholarship” establishes a preference hierarchy, favoring “ethnic minority or international students” first, followed by “women,” “non-Christian Reformed Church Members,”<sup>2</sup> and then those with “financial need,” all listed “...in the order of preference.”

Finally, the scholarships in Exhibit C (27) are sex-based scholarships that violate Title IX. Some explicitly condition eligibility on sex, such as the “Celebrate and Connect Women’s Scholarship”, which is available only to “female” students. Others give preference based on sex, such as the “Carol L. Faber Math Scholarship”, which states that “first preference is for a female student.”

These scholarships are listed, promoted, and administered, according to the Calvin website, through the Calvin Financial Aid department.<sup>3</sup> Students who complete the general Calvin admissions application, as well as the new or returning student application, are automatically considered so long as they meet the eligibility requirements.<sup>4</sup>

These scholarships are currently offered to Calvin students and applicants for admission, according to the Calvin website, and violate Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (“Title VI”) and its implementing regulations<sup>5</sup> by excluding students based on their race, color, or national origin, while other scholarships violate Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (“Title IX”) and its implementing regulations<sup>6</sup> by excluding students based on their sex. Some scholarships violate both Title VI and Title IX.

Each of the scholarships listed below is available for the 2025-2026 school year, according to the Calvin website, with the application period having closed in early 2025.

The Scholarships At Issue Violate The Law

The scholarships identified in Exhibit A, Exhibit B, and Exhibit C violate either Title VI, by discriminating on the basis of race, skin color, or national origin; Title IX, by discriminating on the basis of sex; or both.<sup>7</sup>

Title VI of the Civil Rights Act prohibits intentional discrimination on the basis of race, color or national origin in any “program or activity” that receives federal financial assistance. See 42 U.S.C. § 2000d. The term “program or activity” means “all of the operations ... of a college, university, or other postsecondary institution, or a public system of higher education.” See 42 U.S.C. § 2000d-4a(2)(A); Rowles v. Curators of the Univ. of Mo., 983 F.3d 345, 355 (8th Cir. 2020) (“Title VI prohibits discrimination on the basis of race in federally funded programs,” and thus applies to universities receiving federal financial assistance). As Calvin receives federal funds,<sup>8</sup> it is subject to Title VI.

In Students for Fair Admissions, Inc. v. President & Fellows of Harvard College, 600 U.S. 181 (2023), the Supreme Court declared that “[e]liminating racial discrimination means eliminating all of it .... The guarantee of equal protection cannot mean one thing when applied to one individual and something else when applied to a person of another color. If both are not accorded the same protection, then it is not equal.” Id. at 206 (cleaned up). “Distinctions between citizens solely because of their ancestry [including race] are by their very nature odious to a free people whose institutions are founded upon the doctrine of equality.” Id. at 208.

<sup>7</sup> Although OCR does not enforce Title II of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, that statute makes it unlawful to discriminate on the basis of race or color in a place of “public accommodation,” such as Calvin. 42 U.S.C. § 2000(a)(a). These scholarships also violate the Michigan Elliott-Larsen Civil Rights Act, Elliott-Larsen Civil Rights Act, Mich. Comp. Laws §§ 37.2101-37.2804 (2025). Finally, these scholarships violate Calvin’s own nondiscrimination policy. See <https://calvin.edu/policies/nondiscrimination-harassment-and-bullying-policy> [<https://archive.is/wip/6i8h8>] (accessed on March 11, 2025).

As OCR stated in its February 14, 2025, Civil Rights Guidance Letter<sup>9</sup>:

“Although SFFA addressed admissions decisions, the Supreme Court’s holding applies more broadly. At its core, the test is simple: If an educational institution treats a person of one race differently than it treats another person because of that person’s race, the educational institution violates the law. Federal law thus prohibits covered entities from using race in decisions pertaining to admissions, hiring, promotion, compensation, financial aid, scholarships, prizes, administrative support, discipline, housing, graduation ceremonies, and all other aspects of student, academic, and campus life. Put simply, educational institutions may neither separate or segregate students based on race, nor distribute benefits or burdens based on race.”

Regardless of Calvin’s reasons for offering, promoting, and administering such discriminatory scholarships, Calvin is violating Title VI by doing so. It does not matter if the recipient of federal funding discriminates in order to advance a benign “intention” or “motivation.” Bostock v. Clayton Cnty., 590 U.S. 644, 661 (2020) (“Intentionally burning down a neighbor’s house is arson, even if the perpetrator’s ultimate intention (or motivation) is only to improve the view.”); accord Automobile Workers v. Johnson Controls, Inc., 499 U. S. 187, 199 (1991) (“the absence of a malevolent motive does not convert a facially discriminatory policy into a neutral policy with a discriminatory effect” or “alter [its] intentionally discriminatory character”). “Nor does it matter if the recipient discriminates against an individual member of a protected class with the idea that doing so might favor the interests of that class as a whole or otherwise promote equality at the group level.” Students for Fair Admissions, 600 U.S. at 289 (Gorsuch, J., concurring).

Because Calvin’s racial and/or ethnicity-based requirements for these scholarships are presumptively invalid, the use of such criteria violates federal civil rights statutes.

Title IX prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex in education. The statute provides: “[n]o person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance.” 20 U.S.C. § 1681(a). Accordingly, a school receiving federal funding may not administer scholarships, fellowships, or other forms of financial assistance that impose preferences or restrictions based on sex, except in limited exceptions that are not applicable here. See 34 C.F.R. § 106.37(a).

<sup>9</sup> See United States Department of Education Office for Civil Rights Letter (2025), <https://www.ed.gov/media/document/dear-colleague-letter-sffa-v-harvard-109506.pdf> [<https://archive.is/R62P1>] (“At its core, the test is simple: If an educational institution treats a person of one race differently than it treats another person because of that person’s race, the educational institution violates the law.”)

Restrictions that limit eligibility for scholarships based on sex are underinclusive, as they arbitrarily exclude students who would otherwise qualify. While sex-based classifications are subject to “heightened” scrutiny, Sessions v. Morales-Santana, 582 U.S. 47, 57 (2017); United States v. Virginia, 518 U.S. 515, 532–34 (1996), this standard—though less exacting than the strict scrutiny applied to race-based classifications—still requires an “exceedingly persuasive justification.” Virginia, 518 U.S. at 531. To meet this burden, the government must demonstrate “at least that the [challenged] classification serves important governmental objectives and that the discriminatory means employed are substantially related to the achievement of those objectives.” Id. at 533. Even if the classifications based on sex or other immutable characteristics were intended to further a compelling interest, discriminatory programs must involve “individualized consideration” and must apply criteria in a “nonmechanical way.” Grutter v. Bollinger, 539 U.S. 306, 334 (2003).

Calvin’s explicit race, color, national origin, and/or sex-based scholarships are presumptively invalid; Calvin’s offering, promotion, and administration of these programs violates federal civil rights statutes.

OCR Has Jurisdiction

Calvin is a private entity that receives federal funds,<sup>10</sup> including from the U.S. Department of Education.<sup>11</sup> It is therefore liable for violating Title VI and Title IX, and OCR therefore has jurisdiction over this complaint.

The Complaint Is Timely

This complaint is timely brought because it includes allegations of discrimination based on race, color, national origin, and/or sex that occurred within 180 days and that appear to be ongoing. The scholarships are running during the 2025-2026 academic year, and the application deadline was early 2025.<sup>12</sup>

Request For Investigation And Enforcement

In Richmond v. J. A. Croson Co., Justice Scalia aptly noted that “discrimination on the basis of race is illegal, immoral, unconstitutional, inherently wrong and destructive of a democratic society.” 488 U.S. 469, 505 (1989) (citation omitted). This is true regardless of which race suffers – discrimination against white applicants is just as unlawful as discrimination against black or other non-white applicants. As Justice Thomas correctly noted in Students for Fair Admissions, race-based admissions preferences “fly in the face of our colorblind Constitution and our Nation’s equality ideal” and “are plainly – and boldly – unconstitutional.” 600 U.S. at 287 (Thomas, J., concurring).

Because the discrimination outlined above is presumptively illegal, and since Calvin cannot show any justification for it, the fact that it conditions eligibility for multiple scholarships on race, color, national origin, and/or sex violates federal civil rights statutes.

The Office for Civil Rights has the power and obligation to investigate Calvin’s role in creating, funding, promoting and administering these scholarships – and, given how many there are, to discern whether Calvin is engaging in such discrimination in its other activities – and to impose whatever remedial relief is necessary to hold it accountable for that unlawful conduct. This includes, if necessary, imposing fines, initiating administrative proceedings to suspend or terminate federal financial assistance and referring the case to the Department of Justice for judicial proceedings to enforce the rights of the United States under federal law. After all, “[t]he way to stop discrimination ... is to stop discriminating[.]” Parents Involved in Cmty. Sch. v. Seattle Sch. Dist. No. 1, 551 U.S. 701, 748 (2007).

Accordingly, we respectfully ask that the Department of Education’s Office for Civil Rights prioritize and expedite this complaint given the sheer number of discriminatory scholarships at Calvin reflecting a systematic disregard for Titles VI and IX, promptly open a formal investigation, impose such remedial relief as the law permits for the benefit of those who have been illegally excluded from Calvin’s various scholarships based on discriminatory criteria, and ensure that all ongoing and future scholarships and programming at Calvin comports with the federal civil rights laws.

Request for Expedited Treatment

Given the enormous number of discriminatory scholarships – the most we have seen at a single institution – and that the award process is in progress, we request expedited investigation and enforcement action.

52. Laurie Ellen Mervenne Scholarship for Women in Economics

Link: <https://calvin.academicworks.com/opportunities/25786>

Archived Link: <https://archive.ph/wip/OHN7w>

Description: “When Laurie Mervenne attended Calvin College, there were very few women students pursuing careers in the field of business and economics. Trained as a stock broker, Laurie moved up the ranks from Kelly Girl to sales representative at Hudson’s Department Store into a management position at Mervenne Beverage, a distributing company that her father started from the ground up many years earlier. Through the establishment of this scholarship, Laurie wishes to encourage bright young women not only to go into the field of private or public business, but to seek leadership positions in those businesses and corporations as well by ‘dreaming big and thinking out of the box.’”

Requirements:

Basic criteria:

- entering junior or senior year
- cumulative GPA of 3.00 or higher
- pursuing an economics major
- female
- financial need is considered
- preference will be given to those who “dream big and think out of the box”. First preference is for economics majors; however students with an economics minor may be considered for this scholarship if they meet the criteria.
